We hope that you are planning to join us in Terrell, Texas, September 21-23 for the Texas Postmark Roundup, the 61st annual PMCC convention. On the next page is the registration form for the convention, with all the pricing information, and we want to explain each line item so there is no confusion.

Please note that you should send the entire form to convention host Kevin Tanzillo; the hotel information on the form is just to guide you in making your reservation by phone. As we have mentioned, you must call the hotel, the Fairfield Inn and Suites, phone 972-551-3200, directly and tell them you are part of the PMCC convention in order to get the discounted room rate. That rate applies from Wednesday, September 20, through Saturday, September 23.

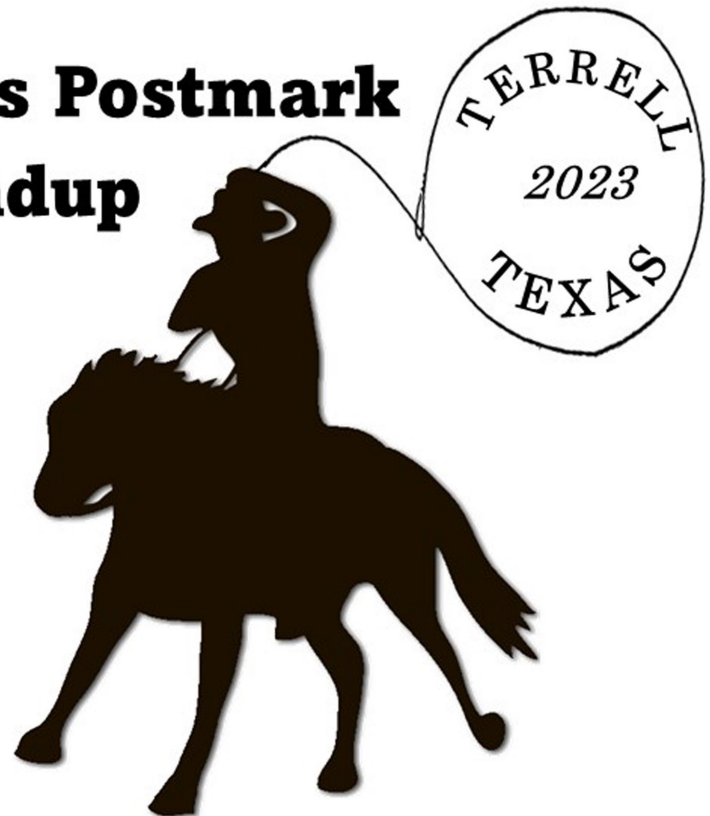

Be sure you fill out your name, contact information, and expected arrival dates, just so we know when to look for you. Registration is $10 for one person, $15 for two or more members of the family.

Our Saturday banquet will be a “Tex-Mex” meal catered by Rio Lerma, a fine restaurant in Terrell. It will be fajita chicken and all the fixings, but don’t worry: The food is NOT spicy. My wife Kristine – who does not care for spicy – and I ate at Rio Lerma, and she approved. The banquet will feature all the traditions, including awards for longtime members.

The convention cachet designs can be found on the back of the registration form. We feature the sesquicentennial of railroading in Terrell, the British Flying Training School that aided our allies in World War II, and the Round House, the oldest house in the city. The pictorial cancel design is shown as well, and please note that all of these images could vary slightly in their final versions.

The T-shirt design is also shown on the back of the form. The shirt will be indigo blue, with the convention logo at upper left. It is available in medium-large-extra large and 2X-3X. It’s a nice design, and if you want one but won’t be at the convention, please include $10 for shipping (that covers multiple T-shirts if you want to order more than one).

Finally, if you want to round up the amount on your check and include any booster dollars, these donations are always welcome. Please make your check payable to me, Kevin Tanzillo, but specify “PMCC Convention” on the note line.

Let’s just review a few of the key things to know about the convention: The hotel offers a free continental breakfast, and lunches and dinners will be easy since there are dozens of restaurants within a mile of the hotel, many within walking distance. We are planning a special postal station each day of the convention, a silent auction on Friday, the annual ice cream event Friday evening, and the convention auction – the climax to the entire event – Saturday after the banquet.

If you have any questions about the form or the convention, please contact me at P.O. Box 1329, Canton, TX 75103, via email at kevin@duxpr.com, or by phone at 903-865-1078 or 214-732-0734 (mobile).
